GERMAN EMBASSY DENIES PLOT

Tells State Department Story of Mexican Intrigue Is Baseless.

The German Ambassador has formally and officially denied to the State Department published reports concerning the alleged connection of the German Embassy with the Huerta movement regarding Mexico, recently broken up at El Paso by Federal authorities. At the request of the Ambassador the State Department yesterday made public the following statement:

"The German Ambassador has informed the department that he denies the whole contents of the story of the Providence Journal about his alleged relations with Gen. Huerta and desires that this statement be given to the press. As the department has no information on the subject, it regards the expression of the Ambassador as satisfactory."

The published reports in question alleged that the German Embassy, and in particular Capt. Boy-Ed, naval attaché, had engineered the attempt of Huerta and his associates recently to enter Mexico for the purpose of heading a counter-revolution. It was alleged that the German Embassy lent its aid to this scheme in order to stir up a counterrevolution to relieve the situation between Germany and the United States.

Woman Killed in Auto Wreck.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 7.—Mrs. Roy Bronson, 35, of Pleasant Valley, was killed and her husband and Melvin H.
Chapman were seriously injured today when their automobile turned turtle near Pleasant Valley.

LADY HIGH DIVER AT BEACH.

"Little Elsie" Will Be Week's Principal Attraction at Resort.

The Ladies' Brass Band, which will continue this week to give twice daily concerts at Chesapeake Beach of popular airs, interspersed with ever-welcome patriotic music, will be followed during this week commencing tomorrow by "Little Elsie," premier lady high diver of the world.

Little Elsie was originally expected to appear at the Beach the week of July 26, but was grief-stricken on the eve of her departure to fulfill the engagement upon hearing that her brother had perished in the Eastland catastrophe at Chicago.
She immediately left to identify the body.

It will be with intermingled admiration and sympathy that the public will witness her hair-raising dives from over 100 feet in the air into only four feet of water. An act of this nature requires the greatest nerve under favorable conditions, and it is a wonderful demonstration of the will power of this tiny girl to see her performing with her usual daring and abandon following her terrible shock. Little Elsie has wired, however, that she will fulfill her contract and thus give Washingtonians an opportunity to see her before she leaves to join her family.

France to Requisition Wheat.

Paris, Aug. 7.—The chamber of deputies, by a vote of 47 to 12, adopted a resolution this afternoon which authorizes the French government to requisition all the wheat, oats and corn in France.

INSPECTION SERVICE INQUIRY TO BE RIGID

Return of Officials Who Investigated Eastland Disaster Will Be Signal for Preliminary Steps.

The Steamboat Inspection Service is to be investigated thoroughly, covering the last fifteen years of its official activity.
The return of the Secretary of Commerce and the Solicitor of that Department and Supervising Inspector Uhler, of the Steamboat Inspection Service, will be the signal for the preliminary steps in the investigation. The three officials named have been in Chicago investigating the Eastland disaster.

There had been much complaint that the inspection service was full of "dead wood" even before the Eastland upset in the Chicago River, but since that affair there have been emphatic protests against the service from labor organizations and others, and the result is that a searching investigation will be made into the efficiency of the service.

Probably no branch of the government service has employed and officers who have served longer. One reason for their continuance in office has been the belief that efficiency had come with experience, and that it was of all branches of public service, the one in which changes should be rarely made. Gen. Uhler, head of the service, who has held over from a previous administration, has not escaped criticism. Personally he is greatly respected by his official associates, and even his superiors. But there is the feeling in official circles that lack of interest and caution has grown up in the service.

Secretary Redfield will make a report to the President and in person as the result of his inquiries into the causes of the Eastland disaster. It is known that he will eliminate overworking as a contributing cause. The Eastland carried 2,500 passengers the day of the accident. That number she was permitted to carry under the previous inspections.

Moonlight Trip Tomorrow Night.

To spend several hours most pleasantly, go aboard the steamer St. Johns tomorrow night, enjoy a ride, and if you are fond of dancing, a dance, as the big steamer glides down the Potomac, and return about 11 p. m., cool and refreshed and ready for a good night's sleep. The St. Johns will make one of its forty-mile dancing trips on the river tomorrow night, leaving here at 7 o'clock. On other days the St.
Johns makes speedy trips to Colonial Beach, leaving here at 9 a. m., except on Saturdays, when the steamer sails at 2:30 p. m. Stops are made at Alexandria on all trips. Colonial Beach is now at its best. The bathing is exceptionally fine, fishing, boating, and crabbing are good, and the boardwalk amusements are such as make the hours pass pleasantly.

Will Inquire Into Collision.

A thorough investigation of the collision of the United States torpedo boat Barney, assigned to the use of the District Naval Battalion, with the auxiliary yacht Eleanor C. on the Lower Potomac last Saturday night will be made. Capt.
E. E. Eberle, commandant of the Washington navy yard, has been instructed to appoint a board of naval officers to conduct the investigation. The Eleanor C. is the property of William H. Denn, of this city.

JULIA MARLOWE NEVER TO ACT AGAIN

JULIA MARLOWE.

The theatrical world feels keenly the loss of Miss Julia Marlowe, who through her husband, E. H. Sothern, announced that she will never act again. Miss Marlowe is 33 at her home at Litchfield, Conn., and Mr.
Sothern said that the strain of attempting to again take up her theatrical work would be too much for her.
It is also possible that Mr. Sothern will announce his retirement as well.

SAYS SWEDEN WILL FIGHT.

London Post Predicts Country Will Go to War on German Side.

London, Aug. 7.—The Morning Post predicts that Sweden will go to war on the side of Germany. The Swedish army has been secretly mobilized, the Post says, and the country is now on a war footing. Sweden has been hostile toward Russia ever since Finland was taken from the Scandinavian country in 1808-1809, and never has lost her ambition to get it back.

Asks that Vessels Be Released.

The State Department yesterday received a request from the Standard Oil Company that representations be made to Germany asking the release of two vessels belonging to the Danish Oil Company, a subsidiary of the American corporation, which have been seized by German naval forces.
It is understood that the desired representations will be made.

WORK AND PLAY, BUT NO CAROUSING, IS PLAN

Orders for District National Guard Encampment Proscribe Liquor, Roughhouse, Etc.

"Hard work and recreation—but no carousing" will be the keynote of the annual encampment of the District National Guard at Colonial Beach. Rules and regulations for the expedition, issued by Brig. Gen. William E. Harvey yesterday, make it clear that while the men will be given ample time for legitimate pleasure, their whereabouts and conduct will be watched closely.

"Only in exceptional cases will officers and enlisted men be excused from duty," reads a part of the orders. "When so excused it will be on a written pass granted by the regimental or separate organization commander. A list of all passes issued, with reasons for same, will be furnished camp headquarters."

"The firing of blank cartridges, except when ordered by proper authority; talking or other noises after taps or before retire; the failure to clean arms; slovenly manner; failure to observe military courtesy, are all indicative of poor discipline and reflect discredit upon the command."

On the liquor question the orders read:
"The introduction of intoxicating liquors into camp is prohibited and will be punished severely."

The orders lay particular stress upon the wanton destruction of private property. Such destruction will be paid for by deducting from the pay of those who take part in it.

RUNNING BAREFOOTED UPHELD BY TRIBUNAL

Judge Quotes Whittier to Father Who Opposes Practice Permitted by Wife.

Blessings on thee, little man.
Barefoot boy, with cheeks of tan Los Angeles, Aug. 7.—If Judge J. P.
Wood, in divorce court, were allowed to give his judgment in poetry, Whit-tier's "The Barefoot Boy" would have been his expression of a judgment he rendered in the case of Frank Lomononaco, who asked the court to change the custody of his children from his wife, Lena Lomonaco, to himself, because she allowed the two children to run barefoot in the Santa Monica Mountains. The couple were divorced two years ago, and Mrs. Lomonaco awarded the custody of the children. But to see Ellen Jane Lomonaco, seven, and Francis Aurelia Lomonaco, five, running around barefoot, did not meet with the father's approval.

Judge Wood denied the father his request. "I was once a barefoot boy," he said, "and the happiest days of my life were the days I spent as a barefoot boy."
"The boy or girl who has not had the privilege of running barefoot has been denied a heritage of youth for which nothing that comes later can compensate. The mother in this case is, according to the evidence, to be praised rather than condemned for allowing the children to run in bare feet."
And then Judge Wood had recollections of Whittier's poem:
"Ah, that thou couldst know the joy Ere it passes, barefoot boy."

AERO AND DIRIGIBLE FIGHT 4,000 FEET UP

Austrian Aviator Hurls Bombs at Italian Balloon, but Finally Is Driven Off.

By BRINGTON D. ALLAIRE.
Rome, Aug. 7.—Details of the first air duel between an Italian dirigible balloon and an Austrian aeroplane were received here today and they reflect credit upon the boldness and efficiency of the Italian aviators.

The Italian airship had successfully bombed the Austrian railway junction at Opelina, three miles northeast of Trieste, and was on its way home when attacked by an Austrian plane of the hydro type. The battle occurred over the Adriatic Sea, 4,000 feet in the air.
While the attack at Opelina was in progress signals were sent to a hydro-aeroplane that was patrolling Trieste harbor. The aeroplane started toward Opelina, but in the meantime the balloon had set off westward and as Opelina is only two miles inland was soon out over the waters of the Adriatic. Mounting to a height of 5,000 feet the Austrian aviator began showering incendiary bombs, attempting to set the airship on fire. All the bombs missed their mark and in the meantime the crew of the dirigible began firing with rifles and a machine gun.
The aeroplane circled overhead, dropping lower and lower, the aviator bringing from a magazine pistol in an effort to puncture the gas bag of the balloon.
Bullets of the Italian guns pierced the pontoons and wings of the aeroplane and one is believed to have wounded the aviator.

Finally the Austrian machine turned toward the east and dashed off toward the Austrian coast line.

Boer Preacher Sentenced.

Pretoria, South Africa, Aug. 7.—"Parson" Van Broekhuizen, the Boer preacher who took a prominent part in the South African revolt, was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for treason today.

MAY BE MADE CARDINAL

Archbishop Ireland Stated to Receive Red Hat, Is Rumor.

New York, Aug. 7.—Catholic circles received with great interest today the announcement of an Italian news agency that Archbishop Ireland would be made a cardinal by Pope Benedict XV. His elevation would give the United States four cardinals.

Archbishop Ireland is nearly 77 years old. He has been head of the See at St.
Paul since 1884, and was made an archbishop in 1888.

Quigley's Successor Not Appointed.

Rome, Aug. 7.—The Consistorial Congregation has adjourned until November without appointing a successor to the late Archbishop Quigley, of Chicago.

Pasadena, Cal., Aug. 7.—Twin sisters, daughters of a prominent Pasadena family, who were wooed and won in two climates, separated by thousands of miles, have announced that a twin wedding will take place soon.
Miss Lois Warren met J. Forrest MacDonald, a Los Angeles automobile man, in Alaska. Miss Lucille Warren, the other sister, met Glenn E. Smith, of Pasadena, in Southern California.
